Taku Whānau

My Family

Tēnā koutou katoa ngā tamariki o te whānau Pipipaopao. (Hello, children of the whānau Pipipaopao.)

Tēnei te whakaahua o taku whānau. (Here is a photo of my family)

Tokowhā ngā tamariki au, ko Wiremu, ko ia te mataamua, rātou ko Isobel, ko ia te tuakana o āku tamahine, ko Aroha, ko Pierce, ko ia te pōtiki o taku tamariki. (I have four children, William, he is the eldest, Isobel, she is the older of my daughters, Aroha, Pierce, and he is the youngest of my children)

Ko Hana rātou ko Donna āku hunaonga, ko Kelly taku hunaonga-tama.
(Hana and Donna are my daughters-in-law and Kelly is my son-in-law.)

Toko whitu āku mokopuna, ko Rynanya, te mataamua, rātou ko Brandon, ko Peighton, ko Ben, ko Rangimahora, ko Luca, ko ia te potiki o āku mokopuna. (I have seven grandchildren, Rynanya, she is the eldest, Brandon, Te Uru, Peighton, Ben, Rangimahora, Luca, and he is the youngest.)

E rua āku pātai māu. (I have two questions for you.)

1. Ka taea e koe te kohikohi whakaahuaa ōu whānau? (Can you collect photos of your family?)
2. Ka taea e koe te ingoa i a rātau katoa, ma te kōrero i te reo Māori? (Can you name them all in te reo Māori?)

Arotahi ki te reo: (Language focus):Ka āko koe me pēhea te tohu ko wai te tangata, he aha te hononga ki a koe. (You will learn how to specify who someone is and what their relationship is to you.)
